

10-14-1897

The Paducah Daily Sun, October 14, 1897

The Paducah Daily Sun

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/pds>

Recommended Citation

The Paducah Daily Sun, "The Paducah Daily Sun, October 14, 1897" (1897). The Paducah Daily Sun. 241.
<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/pds/241>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Paducah Daily Sun by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

An ad. in the Sun will add to your bank account. Try it.

THE PADUCAH DAILY SUN.

The SUN is the only Republican daily in Kentucky west of Louisville.

VOLUME 11—NUMBER 28

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1897.

TEN CENTS A WEEK

IT'S THE OLD TIME SPEECH

The One That Every Man Has Heard
Delivered Three Many Times

THOUSANDS HEAR
THE OLD TIME SPEECH

At the Old Time Speech
Conducted by the Rev. J. H. Smith

STAKE AN HOUR AND A HALF

The annual Old Time Speech was held last night at the Paducah Hotel, and a large number of people were present. The Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah, was the speaker. He delivered the old time speech, which is heard by thousands of people every year. The speech was well received and the audience was much interested.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

The speech was delivered by the Rev. J. H. Smith, of Paducah. He spoke of the old time ways of life and the changes that have come about since then. He also spoke of the importance of religion and the need for a better life. The audience was much interested and the speech was well received.

YELLOW FEVER RECORD

Outlook Today Said to Be More Hopeful.

New Orleans, Oct. 14.—The yellow fever outlook today is more hopeful, the number of new cases and deaths being much less. The yellow fever record was broken at New Orleans yesterday, there being only one death and thirty new cases. The fever has been discovered at several towns—Natchez, La. The city council of Galveston has refused to accept the diagnosis of Dr. G. H. Henshaw and calls for another report. The fatalities yesterday being none at New Orleans include one death each at Edwards, Louisiana and McIlhenny, Minn.; Plaquemine, La.; and Wagar, Ala. A tide from New Orleans forty-nine new cases were reported yesterday.

WEYLER'S GENEROSITY.

Releases a Big Bunch of Cuban Prisoners.

Manila Slaughter Spaniards in Battle.

Havana, Oct. 14.—General Weyler has given one hundred prisoners of war as his last official act to the island of Cuba. A battle with the Cubans is reported in which one hundred Spaniards were slain.

A TERRIBLE FIRE.

Drive Fifty Families From Their Homes.

Norton, Va., Oct. 14.—A disastrous fire in the residence portion of the city has rendered fifty families homeless. The property loss is very heavy.

A Kentucky Judge Killed. Jackson, Ky., Oct. 14.—Jan. Gibson, a former Kentucky judge, was assassinated in Virginia yesterday. The particulars are not known.

POLICE COURT.

Looks Like We Might Have Had War.

Be Court Had Several Times Assailed This Morning.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

George Pool, Remond, and Will E. Smith, friends of the open house and the gallery, were all in the court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

From the looks of the docket, the police court this morning might have been called a war court. Judge Smith's court was assailed by several cases.

THEY'RE HERE.

Bicycle Boys Arrive at Noon on Special Cars.

BIG CROWD AT STOMP-GROW.

Below is a complete list of the names of the bicycle boys who arrived at noon on special cars.

HIGHEST MEET EVER HELD IN SOUTHWEST KENTUCKY.

All the crack bicycle riders came in at 12:10 today from Louisville, where the race ended yesterday.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

There will be in the morning four races, trial heat, and a final race. The races will be held at the track in the afternoon.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

SAM H. HOUSTON

Nominated by the Republicans of This the Second Judicial District.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATT'Y.

A splendid nomination will make a strong race.

PROSPCTS FOR SUCCESS GOOD.

Sam H. Houston, the popular and well known attorney, was today nominated by the Republicans for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district. Mr. Houston has already announced himself as an independent candidate for the same position. He is a strong candidate, will make a hot race and will be elected.

Following are the official minutes of the Republican committee held this morning:

Pursuant to a call of the Judicial Committee the Republicans of this, the Second Judicial district, the committee met at the city hall in Paducah, Ky.

Chairman Fisher called the convention to order and read the official call, as published.

On motion F. M. Fisher was elected chairman to preside over the convention.

On motion Mr. J. W. Cole was elected secretary of the convention.

The chairman announced that nominations for circuit judges were in order. No nominations were made.

The next business in order was nominations for commonwealth's attorney. Mr. J. W. Cole, of Marshall county, introduced the following resolutions:

Whereas, Having the fullest confidence in the high character of Sam Houston, Esq., as a lawyer, man and citizen, therefore

Resolved, That this convention does nominate Sam Houston, Esq., as a candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Madison and Jessamine, at the election to be held on Nov. 2, 1897.

Mr. J. J. Dorian moved that nominations be closed and Sam Houston be declared the nominee of the convention by acclamation.

The motion was carried by acclamation.

Speeches by Capt. E. Farley, J. W. Cooley, Mr. Livingston, J. J. Dorian and J. H. Ford. On the motion being put it was passed by a unanimous vote of all present.

The chairman declared Mr. Sam Houston the nominee of the Republican party for the office of commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky.

No further business, the meeting adjourned. F. M. Fisher, Chairman. J. W. Cole, Secretary.

"A JOLLY NIGHT"

At Morton's Opera House Tonight.

Edwin Travers, supported by a strong cast, will appear at Morton's Opera House tonight in the big New York comedy, "A Jolly Night." Mr. Travers is well remembered for his clever work in "The Private Secretary," which appeared at Morton's last season. "A Jolly Night" is said to give Mr. Travers a better opportunity to display his talent than any play he has yet been seen in. The company supporting him is the same that was in the New York production which had such a successful run at the Herald Square theatre.

Inconspicuous lamp globes suitable for system for sale at McPherson's Drugstore.

OPENING OF THE

NEW GREEK RESTAURANT

211 Broadway.

HOT LUNCHEES

At all hours of the day.

Meals Served at all Hours by a First-Class Cook.

FRESH CANDY

THEY'RE HERE.

Bicycle Boys Arrive at Noon on Special Cars.

BIG CROWD AT STOMP-GROW.

Below is a complete list of the names of the bicycle boys who arrived at noon on special cars.

HIGHEST MEET EVER HELD IN SOUTHWEST KENTUCKY.

All the crack bicycle riders came in at 12:10 today from Louisville, where the race ended yesterday.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

There will be in the morning four races, trial heat, and a final race. The races will be held at the track in the afternoon.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

The races tomorrow afternoon promise to be attended by one of the largest crowds that ever assembled here to witness sport of any kind.

No day has been spared to make the meet a success, and everybody should go out.

The afternoon has been spent in training and looking over the city. They are all pleased with our track, which is much better than many upon which they have ridden.

SAM H. HOUSTON

Nominated by the Republicans of This the Second Judicial District.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATT'Y.

A splendid nomination will make a strong race.

PROSPCTS FOR SUCCESS GOOD.

Sam H. Houston, the popular and well known attorney, was today nominated by the Republicans for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district. Mr. Houston has already announced himself as an independent candidate for the same position. He is a strong candidate, will make a hot race and will be elected.

Following are the official minutes of the Republican committee held this morning:

Pursuant to a call of the Judicial Committee the Republicans of this, the Second Judicial district, the committee met at the city hall in Paducah, Ky.

Chairman Fisher called the convention to order and read the official call, as published.

On motion F. M. Fisher was elected chairman to preside over the convention.

On motion Mr. J. W. Cole was elected secretary of the convention.

The chairman announced that nominations for circuit judges were in order. No nominations were made.

The next business in order was nominations for commonwealth's attorney. Mr. J. W. Cole, of Marshall county, introduced the following resolutions:

Whereas, Having the fullest confidence in the high character of Sam Houston, Esq., as a lawyer, man and citizen, therefore

Resolved, That this convention does nominate Sam Houston, Esq., as a candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Madison and Jessamine, at the election to be held on Nov. 2, 1897.

Mr. J. J. Dorian moved that nominations be closed and Sam Houston be declared the nominee of the convention by acclamation.

The motion was carried by acclamation.

Speeches by Capt. E. Farley, J. W. Cooley, Mr. Livingston, J. J. Dorian and J. H. Ford. On the motion being put it was passed by a unanimous vote of all present.

The chairman declared Mr. Sam Houston the nominee of the Republican party for the office of commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky.

No further business, the meeting adjourned. F. M. Fisher, Chairman. J. W. Cole, Secretary.

"A JOLLY NIGHT"

At Morton's Opera House Tonight.

Edwin Travers, supported by a strong cast, will appear at Morton's Opera House tonight in the big New York comedy, "A Jolly Night." Mr. Travers is well remembered for his clever work in "The Private Secretary," which appeared at Morton's last season. "A Jolly Night" is said to give Mr. Travers a better opportunity to display his talent than any play he has yet been seen in. The company supporting him is the same that was in the New York production which had such a successful run at the Herald Square theatre.

Inconspicuous lamp globes suitable for system for sale at McPherson's Drugstore.

OPENING OF THE

NEW GREEK RESTAURANT

211 Broadway.

HOT LUNCHEES

At all hours of the day.

Meals Served at all Hours by a First-Class Cook.

FRESH CANDY

SAM H. HOUSTON

Nominated by the Republicans of This the Second Judicial District.

FOR COMMONWEALTH'S ATT'Y.

A splendid nomination will make a strong race.

PROSPCTS FOR SUCCESS GOOD.

Sam H. Houston, the popular and well known attorney, was today nominated by the Republicans for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district. Mr. Houston has already announced himself as an independent candidate for the same position. He is a strong candidate, will make a hot race and will be elected.

Following are the official minutes of the Republican committee held this morning:

Pursuant to a call of the Judicial Committee the Republicans of this, the Second Judicial district, the committee met at the city hall in Paducah, Ky.

Chairman Fisher called the convention to order and read the official call, as published.

On motion F. M. Fisher was elected chairman to preside over the convention.

On motion Mr. J. W. Cole was elected secretary of the convention.

The chairman announced that nominations for circuit judges were in order. No nominations were made.

The next business in order was nominations for commonwealth's attorney. Mr. J. W. Cole, of Marshall county, introduced the following resolutions:

Whereas, Having the fullest confidence in the high character of Sam Houston, Esq., as a lawyer, man and citizen, therefore

Resolved, That this convention does nominate Sam Houston, Esq., as a candidate for commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky, composed of the counties of Madison and Jessamine, at the election to be held on Nov. 2, 1897.

Mr. J. J. Dorian moved that nominations be closed and Sam Houston be declared the nominee of the convention by acclamation.

The motion was carried by acclamation.

Speeches by Capt. E. Farley, J. W. Cooley, Mr. Livingston, J. J. Dorian and J. H. Ford. On the motion being put it was passed by a unanimous vote of all present.

The chairman declared Mr. Sam Houston the nominee of the Republican party for the office of commonwealth's attorney for this, the Second Judicial district of Kentucky.

No further business, the meeting adjourned. F. M. Fisher, Chairman. J. W. Cole, Secretary.

"A JOLLY NIGHT"

At Morton's Opera House Tonight.

Edwin Travers, supported by a strong cast, will appear at Morton's Opera House tonight in the big New York comedy, "A Jolly Night." Mr. Travers is well remembered for his clever work in "The Private Secretary," which appeared at Morton's last season. "A Jolly Night" is said to give Mr. Travers a better opportunity to display his talent than any play he has yet been seen in. The company supporting him is the same that was in the New York production which had such a successful run at the Herald Square theatre.

Inconspicuous lamp globes suitable for system for sale at McPherson's Drugstore.

OPENING OF THE

NEW GREEK RESTAURANT

211 Broadway.

HOT LUNCHEES

At all hours of the day.

Meals Served at all Hours by a First-Class Cook.

FRESH CANDY

HEATING STOVES

We have them in more than sixty sizes and patterns, for

COAL WOOD GAS OIL

We are the only people who can please you in every particular, as to style, quality and price.

COAL BUCKETS 10¢ BEST QUALITY

GEO. O. HART & SON

HARDWARE AND STOVE CO.

303-307 Broadway — 109-117 North Third

YOUR FREE

READ HOW: With every cash purchase of $1 or over you can get your picture on a Button or Pin FREE OF CHARGE.

We Carry the Largest and Best Selected Stock of SHOES

In the city. All we ask is a visit to our store and our prices will tell the rest. The well-known photographer, W. G. McFADDEN, will do the work for us, which alone guarantees satisfaction. Bring your children and buy their School Shoes of us, as also your own shoes, and get ticket. This is the latest fad of the day. Your picture costs you nothing by buying shoes of

GEO. ROCK & SON,

321 Broadway, Paducah, Ky.

A SNAP IN CHILDREN'S SHOES.

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY. FOR CASH ONLY.

Your pick and choice of a lot of

